

Students to Appear at Music Scholarship Tea

A Music Scholarship Tea on March 9th at Narbonne High School will be held in support of the Tenth District PTA Music Department Project to obtain scholarships for outstanding and needy music students in the Los Angeles City School District.

Considerable interest is being shown in this event and those interested in furthering the education of worthy students will make an effort to attend his silver tea to add their support to those who have already aided in this work throughout the entire Los Angeles area.

The program will be held in the school cafeteria and will be an informal affair with students from elementary schools in this area as well as Narbonne High School students lending their support by appearing on the program during the afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock.

Scheduled for 20 minute periods, the following schools will be represented by outstanding students chosen for their musical ability to appear in choruses, instrumental and vocal solos and orchestration music.

From 2 to 2:20 the children of Halldale avenue school will present their program; Normont School, 2:20 to 2:40; Lemita Elementary, 2:40 to 3 o'clock; Harbor City, 3 to 3:20; Orange Street, 3:20 to 3:40 and climaxing the afternoon, selections will be those from Narbonne High School when a string quartet will play; Elbridge Walker and Patricia Blackmon will be heard in a piano duo; Carol and Sally Halling, violin and flute duo and vocal solos by Edna Sandstrom, Elizabeth Reed and Jean Adams.

Of interest to this community is the fact that the three Narbonne students to appear as vocal soloists were scheduled to be auditioned by Tenth District PTA earlier this week among others throughout Los Angeles who may be eligible for music scholarships.

Elementary school PTA Presidents will pour at the tea table in the order that the students of the school they represent appear on the program.

Hostesses during the afternoon will include Mesdames Minot Ruge, W. J. Schroeder, Don Wolfe, W. H. Naylor, J. Mariotti, E. R. Walker, and John Shields. Assisting with the refreshments will be Mrs. W. E. Jeffrey and Mrs. Einar Erikson and a decorated tea table will be complete with silver service.

A silver offering will be taken for the Music Scholarship fund.

VARIETY SHOW, OTHER C.D.A. AFFAIRS TOLD

A variety show under the direction of Mrs. James Donald was enjoyed by members of Court St. Catherine, their families and friends when they gathered Monday evening for a pot-luck dinner, at Nativity hall. The program, following a Gay 90's theme, was presented by the Junior Choir of Nativity Catholic Church, assisted by two youngsters, Joanie Donald and Frank Gately, Jr. Soloists were Ruth Alford and Frank Algarne.

Mrs. Anna McIntire was general chairman for the evening. The tables were decked with acacia blossoms, narcissus, and yellow tapers. Sixty guests were in attendance, including the Court's District Deputy, Mrs. Mae Phinney of Compton. Representatives of Court St. Catherine have attended several enjoyable social functions at other courts this past week. Court Our Lady of Victory, Redondo Beach, staged a dance at St. James hall, Saturday evening, with Messrs. and Mesdames Howard Owen, Frank Forester and Howard Schott of Torrance among their guests.

The silver anniversary banquet for Court Angeles at the Billmore Monday evening, was attended by Mrs. Howard Owen, grand regent, Mrs. Gilbert Hutton, and the Misses Rosa and Katherine Ortmann. Mesdames Owen, McIntire, Hutton and Cunningham of Torrance were guests of Court Compton Tuesday evening, at a social commemorating their 24th anniversary.

Court St. Catherine's officers will meet in regular session next Monday, March 7.

YWCA YOUNG ADULTS TO PRESENT PROGRAM

Mrs. Marko Katich, popular interior decorator of San Pedro, is being presented by the Young Adults of the YWCA at their open meeting tomorrow (Friday) night. Mrs. Robert Williams, hostess for the event, announced that any young women of the community are welcome to attend the meeting. The time is 8:00 p.m., the place 1852 Reynolds Drive in Kettler Knolls.

Mrs. Katich will give practical suggestions to the homemaker who cannot spend a great deal of money for decorations, yet wants to make her home attractive and gracious. She will show samples of materials and give examples of furniture styles and furniture arrangement.

The committee in charge of this affair consists of Mrs. Alice Slater, Mrs. Joan Faren, Miss Dorothy Smith and Miss Sandy Pointek. The event is one of a monthly series of social and educational events being presented by and for young women under auspices of the Torrance YWCA.

Further information about the program may be obtained from Miss Elaine Allebrook, Torrance YWCA program director at the District Welfare Center, Torrance 1356.

GIRL SCOUTS BEGIN PROJECT AT MEETING

Janeth Horton, presided at the last meeting of Girl Scout Troop No. 758 when the girls made plans for their pins that they will make as a new troop project.

Mrs. Opal Falley's group will be known as the Busy Bees and Mrs. Blanche's group, the "Little Stinkers."

The girls retired to their respective groups to work for their Girl Scout badges and the Friendship Circle closed the meeting.
